But his friend, the doctor, does not know what to think. Holmes and Watson are unable to catch up with the cab but catch a brief glimpse of its passenger, a man with a black beard which Holmes thinks is probably false. Herbrother, however, does not appear to approve of the relationship. Movie and TV adaptations come and go, but the purity of Sherlock Holmes is like vapor to the uninitiated. View all 12 comments.

AnnePerryAfterword. Well, what we love about The Hound of the Baskervilles is the reason a second boot was stolen is that initially the stolen item was new and therefore unworn, useless for trying to give the hound its scent to pursue. Barrymore takes offense at this and Sir Henry has to give him several of his old clothes in order to make him feel better.
