A story of love, hope, despair, She received a master's degree in library science from the Drexel Institute of Technology and was a librarian at Brown University. You will fly away from me. My main issue with this book is how common the use of chemicals is in Hubbell's commercial beekeeping.

Hubbell sets the scene beautifully, honoring the calendar of both bee and beekeeper. His favourite painting of his was Cupid complaining to Venus, where Cupid is being stung by bees after stealing some honey. I enjoyed this book and learning about bees.
