Whereas for my idea for how Fear is represented -- Fear and Rage -- I feel like there are a lot of gray zones in the way they're represented in the comic books, so I try to think about how Rage is pure anger and just ravaged and jagged and chaotic, and then Fear is a lot more calculated. Agent Orange and the Red Lantern Corp are worse. Mahnke: He did an initial drawing; I wasn't even aware of his very first sketches that he had .

Then, playing around with how Kyle has a very easy time moving from Green to Blue.

In many ways, "Rise of the Third Army" is very much a transitional book, rushing the Green Lantern universe perhaps now more properly described just as "The Lantern Universe" towards the great confrontation to which it has long been building. Yeah, I know he has a history as a Green Lantern, but everybody knows Sinestro is a villain!

The Guardians of the Universe have gone mad! What does Kyle Rayner fear? Sort order.
