Barclay James Harvest - Echoes And Shadows tekst lyrics | Tekstovi Pesama

Here lie the towers so tall. Strange, they tumble and fall.
Time softly playing the chord. Could be lost in the void. Do your eyes see it all? Gone like the dreams.

To confront the death camps was to encounter a terrible sense of shame, in the
In fact the war did not really touch me as a boy until the late '40s and '50s, when it came in lurid and paradoxically shadowy forms: simultaneously trivial, exciting and disturbing. Comics for girls from this period were equally popular if less numerous, and their titles— Girl Echoes and Shadows Friend and Bunty —were designed to reinforce middle class aspirations and gender stereotypes, with tales of nurses, dancers, boarding schools and horsewomen.
I owned an enviably large collection of spent calibre brass cartridges. We read our mail and counted up our missions.
