This son. In his early twenties, Hosokawa studied in Berlin for several years with the exiled Korean composer Isang Yun, and the post-war European style remains a major influence of his music, alongside intrinsic Eastern aesthetic principles. We played works for various combinations of guitars, with or without percussion, in groups of ten, nine or eight, with the redundant ones doubling on percussion.

Oracion, melodiapopolare. In a recent BBC interview conducted by Peter Sens

In this movement, the two half-sections are repeated, giving the performers a chance to challenge themselves to embellish differently each time. However, he showed that it wasn't necessary to use big dramatic orchestral sounds to move an audience, and his output was inspirational to the French impressionists.
