I submit that if being a decent, compassionate and considerate person is an area that receives far too little attention in the education of children, The family is the most important teacher in this regard. It never occurred to me to tell him that his disruptions were preventing other kids from learning. As long as you understand that results grades dont really matter until high school, make sure he keeps learning on his own! Youwouldbesurprisedjusthowfaralittlegesturegoes.We know how much that kid needs us and how they tell us that in the most tiresome ways.
